PIANO STUDENTS

Shimamura Akira (Year 3)

Shimamura Akira is largely self-taught in the discipline of piano music and enjoys virtually all genres of music from classical to rock, from jazz to pop, but with an especially keen interest in the Romantic music of Schumann, Liszt, and Chopin.

He was a member of the Senior Choir in La Salle College, his alma mater, from 2019 to 2020 as chorister. He also served as Member Pianist in the HKU Choir from 2022 to 2023, and as Resident Pianist from 2023 to 2024. He attained an Associate of Trinity College London (ATCL) in Piano Recital in 2022.

Sarah Suen (Year 4)

Sarah Suen is a fourth-year student in the Faculty of Education at the University of Hong Kong. She began learning the piano at the age of four and later enrolled in the Junior music programme at The Hong Kong Academy for Performing Arts (HKAPA).

During her Bachelor's years, Sarah was awarded the Licentiate of Trinity College London with distinction under the tutelage of Ms. Nancy Loo and has had the opportunity to perform in various events, including the Advanced Music Performance annual recitals.
